

LEFT OF CENTER

by Joshua Maloni

We welcome your tips. Call 773-7676 or e-mail sentinel@wnypapers.com.

What Happens in Vegas ... Happens in Lewiston

Late last week, Casa Antica, 490 Center St., hosted a thank you party for regular customers. If you were there, you already know two things: The Soldano family treats everyone special, and man can they cook. If you weren't there, make it a point to stop by in this new year and mangia the gnocchi Sorrentino, fettuccine Bolognese, vitello Milanese or rigatoni vodka. The food is so good, it's ridiculous. Meaty, saucy insanity.

On Thursday, March 6, the gourmet Italian restaurant will host a Las Vegas dinner theater show. Live entertainment and a five-course meal will be served at 6:30 p.m. Tickets are $55.

A Casa Antica dinner show is a little slice of heaven. The appetizers alone would constitute a great, filling dinner. But guests will receive so much more, including salad, a full entrée, dessert and coffee.

The Soldanos will host a St. Joseph Day Table featuring traditional favorites on Wednesday, March 19.

For more information on either event, or to make a reservation, call 754-2581.

Kristen, Giuseppe and Angela of Casa Antica.

Back in the 'Blender'